Valovi

Nespeče morje,
valovi zrejo vate.
Šum zbudi srce.

Marcel Loboda

Waves

Sleepless the waters,
their waves laying eyes on you.
Sounds inflame your heart.

Marcel Loboda

(translation Nina Golob)

In the days of summer season openings, we are pleased to announce a new ALA issue, the second this year. Warm congratulation goes to all the authors, and feelings of gratitude go to the editorial board and all the involved. We sincerely hope that the seven research articles inflame your critical thinking just like the sounds of sleepless summer waves may inflame your hearts.

Editors and Editorial Board wish the regular and new readers of the ALA journal a pleasant read full of inspiration.
